19.10.2022

The advantages of multinational solutions in radioactive waste management are widely acknowledged. The big question is how to get there. This ERDO webinar addresses the challenging siting question. It will also give you an insight in all the work that has been done to date by ERDO and others and will outline the challenges that still lie ahead of us on the road to shared disposal.

The webinar will run from 14:00 to 16:00 CET.
